TO HEAR DEBATE ON BLOCKADE PLANS

As Incorporated In Measures Introduced

AN EFFECTIVE BLOCKADE

Will Be Object of Any Legislation—Both Critics and Defenders of the Government's Policy Are Insistent That Such a One Must Be Maintained Against Teuton Allies.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Jan. 26.—Experts and self-styled experts on the economies of war, and the law of maritime war on commerce mobilized in the house of commons this afternoon, eagerly awaited debate on the measures to be taken for a blockade against Germany. Critics of the governments policy and the defenders thereof were equally insistent on the necessity of enforcing "a blockade as effective as possible" but they joined issue on the best method of enforcing this, a keen desire being shown in some quarters to make the interference with neutral commerce as light as possible.

The demand was general, however, for a greater stringency in the prevention of foodstuffs and other conditional contraband passing by neutral countries into Germany.

The debate hinged on a motion introduced with the object of obtaining from the government a full statement of the facts and giving an opportunity to deal with most of the aspects of the recent complaints against the foreign office.

ONLY CLEMENCY OF GOVERNOR CAN SAVE MAN'S LIFE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 26.—Only executive clemency can save Peter Skribner, convicted Toledo murderer, from the electric chair. February 11, the supreme court today refused to review his case. Skribner, a Russian, was convicted in Lucas county of murdering Detective Kaiser Bartel.

The board of pardons at a meeting held recently refused to recommend Skribner for executive clemency. For this reason it was regarded as doubtful if Governor Willis would interfere to save the condemned man from the electric chair.

In the death house of the penitentiary Skribner received news of the supreme court's final action stoically. A Russian interpreter told him that he would have to die, but prison officials said he did not appear affected by the information. He has abandoned hope, they declared, and does not care to live longer.

The last executions at the penitentiary were those of Harley Beard, Ironton youth, and Wesley Jenkins, colored, of Dayton.

80 HORSE DOCTORS TAKING 'EXAMS' UNDER A NEW LAW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 26.—Eighty veterinarians, many of them aged, appeared today before the state board of veterinary examiners in an effort to secure licenses under the law passed last winter providing that those who practiced before 1894 may be admitted now without taking an examination. Most will be refused the examiners declared. The ages of a score of the veterinarians indicated they must have practiced "horse doctoring" when only 12 years old.

STATE SECRETARY PREPARES OPINION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 26.—Secretary of State Hildebrandt was at work today preparing an opinion on the question which has been raised recently over the new law providing that candidates for delegate to national party conventions must file with nomination papers the names of their first and second choices for the national presidential choice and secure written permission from each candidate for that use of his name. The opinion probably will be given out tomorrow, Mr. Hildebrandt stated.

Matt Glezer, Cincinnati, editor, called on Secretary of State Hildebrandt today to urge him to give his ruling immediately. He threatened to call a rump Republican state convention to select delegates to the national convention if the ruling is that candidates for delegate actually must secure written authority from candidates for president.

MINERS ARE TO WORK PENDING NEGOTIATIONS

BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY PRESIDENT WHITE'S POSITION INDORSSED

No Suspension of Operations While Efforts are Made to Settle Disputes.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—The United Mine Workers of America in convention today decided not to suspend work after the contracts have expired so long as negotiations for new arrangements are pending. A rising vote taken after a long debate showed that 1,000 of the 1300 delegates favored the proposition of non-suspension, recommended by President John P. White.

The question of non-suspension was one of the most important to come before the convention. President White was endorsed by the committee on officers reports. Those who favored non-suspension urged that it was to the best interest of the workers to continue work so long as there was a chance to get new agreements which expire on March 31.

Most of the opposition to the policy came from Indiana and Illinois, although President Frank Farrington, of the Illinois miners and international vice president Frank J. Hays of Illinois supported President White. The anthracite miners were almost unanimous for the non-suspension policy.

Followed from Wife's Grave Man Arrested for Larceny of $100,000 Cash and Securities

New York, Jan. 26.—The death of his wife was today learned to have led directly to the arrest here of George A. Gray on a warrant signed by the Governor of Massachusetts charging him with larceny of cash securities valued at $100,000 from Fred Kessel, of Chicago and "other persons living in Massachusetts."

A detective arrived here from Boston to take him back for trial.

Gray was arrested last night after having been followed by police from an undertaking shop to the cemetery where Mrs. Gray was buried earlier in the day, and back to the undertakers. He is said to have taken his arrest calmly, and to have told police that the matter was a "family affair involving no larceny," and would quickly be adjusted.

Of Privilege of First Class Mail Charged Against Germany

BY GREAT BRITAIN FOREIGN OFFICE

As a Defense Against Detention of Mails

SPITE OF U. S. PROTEST

List of Goods Found In Mail Bags of Central Powers Taken From Dutch Steamships Published By England, Shows Articles Carried In Parcels Post Packages Not Immune.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Jan. 26.—The foreign office handed to the American embassy an ad interim reply to the American protest against detention of mails. The note states that a formal answer to the representations of the United States will be made as soon as the French government has signified its approval of the attitude of Great Britain. It is understood the formal reply will defend the action of the British authorities by citing evidence that the Germans have been abusing the privilege of first class mails. The British government will rely on the postal conventions adopted at The Hague for justification of its measures.

The British foreign office today published a list of goods in postal mail bags of the central powers taken from the Dutch steamship Frisia, outward bound, Tubantia, inward bound, and the Ryndam. The mail bags taken from the Frisia contained rolled gold chains, gold earrings, bracelets, rings and brooches, and drugs, dyes, oleographs and machine needles.

The Tubantia's mail bags are said to have contained four sacks of rubber in packets marked "samples without value" of a total weight of 73 1-2 pounds and addressed to Hamburg, from Brazil, and also seven packets of wool from Uruguay to Berlin of sample size.

Examination of the Ryndam's mail bags has not been completed but the mails are alleged to have contained sixty per cent newspapers, thirty per cent propaganda and ten per cent goods, "all of enemy origin," and addressed in most cases to firms with German names in the United States.

"The above particulars," it was said at the foreign office, "show the extent to which the postal mails are being used by the enemy as a means of conveyance of goods to evade the measures of restriction of trade taken by the British government. By no possible stretch can it be contended that in the majority of the foregoing cases the articles seized are postal correspondence or samples to which alone can be applied such immunity as the postal mails enjoy."

The United States protested to Great Britain last month against interference with mails between this country and Sweden. Large quantities of mail matter, particularly parcels post packages, have been taken from a number of steamships which were detained in British ports on voyages to the continent.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Jan. 26.—In anticipation of a strike of coal miners after their agreement with the operators expires next April, the New York city board of estimate has asked the board of aldermen for permission to purchase $200,000 worth of coal in the open market for the use of city departments.

Determined Stand of Montenegrins; Women Are Heroes

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Rome, Jan. 26, via Paris, Jan. 26.—A dispatch from Shargovanni di Medua to the Idea Nazionale says that the Montenegrins made a determined stand on Mount Tarabosh in an effort to save the city of Scutari, but the approach of a strong Austrian column forced the garrison to evacuate the place and the detachment on the mountain to retreat.

The women, it is stated, conducted themselves as heroically as the men, carrying on their backs during the retreat everything that was necessary to continue the struggle.

U. S. CONSUL AND WIFE RESCUE THOUSANDS OF ARMENIANS

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Jackson in parlor of U. S. consulate at Aleppo, Syria. Armenians say that it was solely owing to the energetic action of U. S. Consul Jesse B. Jackson at Aleppo, Syria, who adopted a strong attitude toward the Turkish military authorities, that thousands of Armenian lives in Aleppo and in the surrounding regions were saved.

President Wilson Asks Newark Citizens to Give to Relief of Jews

A general appeal is being made in Newark for the financial aid for the 9,000,000 Jews impoverished and oppressed by the European war, who are destitute and homeless as a result of the conflict being waged in Galicia, Poland and other sections of Europe.

Jews of the United States are bending every energy to raising money to relieve the sufferings of their brethren in Europe, but the task is gigantic, and the president has called upon the people of the United States to contribute to the aid of the war-stricken Jews.

The Jewish congregation in Newark find it impossible to make personal calls on citizens of Newark next Thursday to ask contributions and as the number of persons who can be seen personally is limited, it is urged that contributions be sent direct to the Great Western clothing store, The Advocate or The American-Tribune offices.

Of the 9,000,000 Jews in the countries now at war, most of them are destitute of food, shelter and clothing, having been driven from their homes by invaders and they are suffering from hunger, disease and other hardships, probably surpassing those of any other people oppressed by the world conflict.

Thursday next, January 27, is the day set in President Wilson's proclamation as "Jewish Relief Day," and contributions or checks are solicited for this worthy cause.

SIX PERISHED TODAY IN FIRE SEATTLE, WASH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Seattle, Wash., Jan. 26.—Six persons lost their lives here today in a fire which destroyed the interior of the five-story Talbot-Walker building at Jackson street, and First avenue, south.

A large quantity of hemp salvaged from an incendiary fire last fall on a steamship pier stacked with war munitions was being dried in the building. Officials said there was no incendiary fire but the building was considered a risk because of the hemp drying. Three of the killed were jumping from the fourth story window. Three others were suffocated. All were men. Several others who jumped from windows were caught in blankets.

Mrs. Mohr on Stand Today in Her Trial for Killing of Husband, After State Rests

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Providence, R. I., Jan. 26.—The state rested today in the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr and two negroes, Cecil Brown and Henry Spellman, charged with the murder of the woman's husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr on August 31, last. By the testimony of more than fifty witnesses, including George W. Heals, Dr. Mohr's chauffeur, who turned states evidence, the prosecution had attempted to prove that the negroes shot the physician at the instigation of Mrs. Mohr.

Counsel for the defense made ready today to begin the introduction of testimony in behalf of the prisoners. The prosecuting officials said when court adjourned yesterday that but one witness remained to be examined before the state would rest its case.

Immediately after the state had rested, Arthur Cushing, counsel for Mrs. Mohr, moved that the indictment against his client be dismissed on the ground that it was in variance with the evidence. The motion was denied by the court. A similar motion in behalf of Spellman also was dismissed.

George H. Monahan, a police captain, the last witness of the prosecution, told of the arrest of Brown and corroborated other witnesses relative to an alleged confession made by the negroes.

Mrs. Mohr took the witness stand at 3:12 o'clock.

LABOR'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE WAR WILL BE DEFINED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Bristol, England, Jan. 26.—The representatives of more than 2,000,000 members of unions, met here to decide the attitude of organized labor toward the war, and in particular compulsory military service.

Early in the proceedings an attack on the compulsory service bill now before the house of lords was made by the president of the conference, William Anderson, member of parliament for the Attercliffe division of Sheffield.

Mr. Anderson, who has opposed the bill in parliament, declared that it did not redeem the pledge of Premier Asquith regarding compulsion.

The British labor conference adopted today by a vote of 1,847,000 against 206,000 a resolution entirely approving the action of the parliamentary labor party in co-operating with other political parties in the national recruiting campaign.

COUNCIL MAY CUT SALARIES SAFETY DEPT.

At a special meeting of the city council, called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock, it is probable that the police force will be reduced, salaries of police officers and probably firemen, will be trimmed to meet the deficiency in the safety department fund for the first six months of the year.

The call for the special meeting which was signed by Councilmen H. J. Alexander, Dick Curry and T. E. Adams, states that the meeting is held to consider an ordinance for regulating salaries in the safety department and other matters pertaining to the safety department.

Police officers and firemen have been busy for the past week conferring with officials in an effort to stay any action which might reduce salaries.

These employees of the city point out that only recently ordinances have been amended increasing the salaries of clerks in the office of the service department and the auditor's office and that it would be unfair to cut salaries of other city employees in view of this fact.

Clerk Woodward, this afternoon stated that if an ordinance had been drawn, he was not aware of it. From other sources, however, it is understood that the ordinance which will be presented tonight will cut the salary of the safety director and his clerk, cut four men off the police payroll entirely and reduce the salaries of other police officers and firemen $5 per month each.

Operated Upon Woman With Tin Teaspoons, And Saved Her Life

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Elkins, W. Va., Jan. 26.—While two tin teaspoons, a pocket knife and a piece of rubber tubing as his instruments, Dr. H. W. Daniel, of the Elkins hospital, performed an operation on a woman apparently dying of diphtheria and saved her life, it was learned today. Called to the mountain home of Mrs. Thurman Oberly, the doctor found the woman unconscious. Having no surgical instruments with him and realizing that death was near, he made an incision in the woman's windpipe with his knife and using the teaspoons bent double as retractors, he inserted the rubber tube. Respiration was restored and within a few hours the patient regained consciousness. It is said today that her recovery is expected.

Governor Willis Tells Ohio Newspaper Publishers

MEETING IN COLUMBUS

Personal Or Political Prejudices Should Not Enter Into the Consideration, But Facts Should Be Given As Nearly As Possible Without Any Such Bias.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Jan. 26.—"Distortion of news to suit the business or personal policies of a newspaper is the greatest danger to American journalism today," Governor Willis declared in an address today before the Associated Ohio Dailies at their meeting here. News columns exert much greater influence than editorial pages," the governor said, and added:

"For this reason it has become a factor in the day to rightly direct the portrayal of the news, to give truthful direction to the force of headlines to secure an impartial portrayal of the news that leaves the reader to judge not what the editor wants him to judge, but what he ought to know."

The tendency to allow personal or business interests to tinge the quality of the news has not reached into the smaller publishing centers as much as into the larger cities, Governor Willis explained, because, "the large news agencies which are supplying you are taking scrupulous care to prevent distorted news from reaching your column and so it happens that everywhere we hear big (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)"

NIGHT SESSION OF EASTLAND INQUIRY MAY BE NECESSARY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 26.—Captain Robert Reid, inspector of Hulls for the Michigan district was still under direct examination when the sixth day of the hearing in the ill-fated steamer Eastland case opened in federal court here this forenoon. Captain Reid was one of the six men indicted in the case and it was expected he would be followed on the witness stand by Chas. Eckhoff of Grand Haven, inspector of boilers, who also is a defendant in the case.

The defense announced positively that it wished to cross its case today, for that reason it was expected a night session of the hearing might be necessary. It was considered likely that the case would be adjourned late today until next Monday because Attorney Charles Black of counsel for the defense, has been excused Thursday to attend memorial exercises in Chicago for his father, who was a prominent G. A. R. veteran.

Many Cases of Rheumatism Now

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this action from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a table-spoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. There you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

WIFE NO. 1

WILL NOT DIVORCE FARWELL NOR PERMIT HIM TO SECURE CURE ONE

"Won't Let Any 20 Year Old Girl Get My Husband" She Says—Wife No. 2 Prostrated.

(Associated Press Telegram) Akron, O., Jan. 24.—Mrs. Jesse Farwell, Number 1, (Fannie Abo) left today with her three children for the home of her mother in Philadelphia, saying as she departed that she was through with her husband who is in jail here facing charges of bigamy, which he has admitted. Mrs. Farwell number 2, (Irene Bennett) is at her parents' home in Hudson, this county. She is still prostrated by the arrest of Farwell, and exposure of the Farwells' unusual domestic arrangements.

"I will never live with him again. But I won't divorce him, neither will I permit him to have a divorce. I won't let any twenty-year-old girl get my husband. It will serve him right to be tied up to me for life," said Mrs. Farwell number 1, as she started for Philadelphia. She explained that the two-wife arrangement worked well. "Jesse gave me his pay; I ran the house and gave Irene enough for clothes. I washed the dishes and she wiped them. She helped me bathe and care for the children. He always said he liked us both best. When he left home he always kissed us both, but usually kissed Irene last. I made the best of the situation for the sake of the children, but now I am through."

OREGON YOUTH INVITES MAYOR TO VISIT HIM

Mayor Bigbee this morning received a cordial invitation to visit Paul Fitterer, a school boy located at St. John, Oregon. Master Paul, in his letter of invitation, urges the Mayor to time his visit to connect with the rose carnival at Portland next June. He extolls the beauties of his country and asks tourists to include Oregon, Portland and St. John particularly, in their itinerary. The letter follows:

"1225 Ivanhoe street, St. John, Ore. Jan. 24, 1924.

"Dear Friend:—This is letter written week in Portland and our school is writing letters to the people in the east to induce them to come here on their tour this summer. Please come if possible. Come in time for the rose carnival this June. The Crater and other lakes are very beautiful. We have large mountains and forests of great importance. Sincerely yours,

VERACITY

"I believe that the influence of the press is yet to reach a higher plane than it has yet attained. As we increase in population and more and more questions of moment are submitted to the people, they must depend upon the newspaper for their guidance. If they are guided aright, as I believe they will be in their larger phase, the people will increase their powers. I believe that today the American press has more influence than it ever had at any other time in any other country. No other extra-judicial force except religion, is half so powerful."

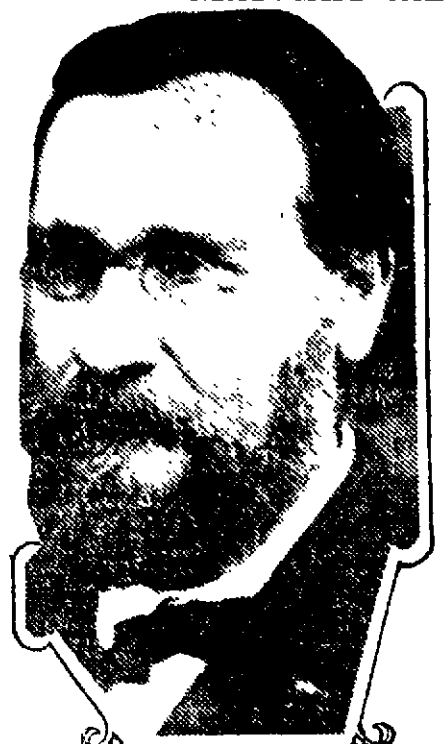

"It is a problem for a democracy like ours to reconcile the rapid absorption of its news with a true understanding of the daily course of events. Life is not made up of 'high spots.' A nation and a people must pause to calmly consider more than the 'punch' of its daily life. One criticism of our people is that we are essentially superficial—we read the headlines and nothing else. This is a problem for our newspaper friends, the development of the press that will tend to sanity in national life while at the same time it gives the people the news that they want and will pause to read."

The editorial page is still powerful but people know how to interpret it, as they quickly come to understand the particular bias of the editor. It is different with the news columns. Men believe what they see in the news. Perhaps we are still too close to the day when the written word was scarce and more sacred in its import.

"This, then, is the problem of our democracy: That we shall insist upon a correct, fair, impartial transmission of the news. The people must judge through the news columns; editorially the papers may take whatever attitude they please. "I say to you earnestly that one of the greatest dangers of which the American people and the newspaper profession in particular have to cope today is a tendency in some quarters toward vicious and malicious personal journalism as displayed in the news columns. If a newspaper owner should refuse to be tutored by truth, just that soon will thinking Americans lose faith in the profession which he represents and seek to curb what they will come to believe a spirit of brigandage which is contrary to every spirit of fair play in American life. Notable instances can be given of century-old papers which have died quickly when the public came to understand."

the unreliability and viciousness of the policy pursued."

Prof. Joseph S. Myers, director of the school of journalism at Ohio State University, disagreed with Governor Willis on the influence of the editorial page. He said he thought editorials are read and trusted much more than is ordinarily believed.

Future development of American newspapers will be along the lines of professional ethics, rather than in mechanical progress, Prof. Myers declared.

"The press of the mid-twentieth century will be just as far ahead of the press today as the latter is ahead of the mid-nineteenth century newspaper," he said. "Graduates of schools of journalism are proving more and more a factor in making the newspaper of a higher standard, and the old newspaper men no longer sneer at colleges of journalism."

Walter Williams, director of the University of Missouri's school of journalism, was not able to attend the meeting today.

J. Sherman Porter, newspaper editor of Lexington, Ky., formerly of Gallipolis, O., defended his adopted state against its reputation of lawless feuds. "The era of the pistol in Kentucky has passed," he said.

W. F. Chambers, chairman of the vigilance committee of the advertisers' club of Cincinnati, read a paper defending the right of druggists to advertise.

FOR MAN WHO SHOT FACTORY PRESIDENT DROPPED BY SHERIFF

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, Jan. 24.—Sheriff O. M. Spink of Lake county today, dropped his search for the assailant of John B. Henrion, president of the Mentor Knitting Mills at Mentor, who was shot and perhaps fatally wounded at the mills yesterday. The sheriff says he knows the identity of the man who fired the shot, but there will be no arrests as far as he is concerned. Spink withdrew from the case today following some unexpected developments, including the finding of a revolver with one chamber empty in a washroom at the mills a few feet from where Henrion was shot. Beside it lay a handkerchief, grease covered and with powder stains. This towel, the sheriff says, had seemingly been wrapped around the gun to deaden the report when it was fired. A second towel covered with blood was lying beside the revolver. Relatives of Henrion scouted any idea that Henrion inflicted the wound himself.

PREVENT RELAPSES OF GRIP

This is the time of year when those who have had the form of influenza known as "the grip" are suffering from the condition in which the disease invariably leaves its victims.

Grip leaves the blood thin and the anemia which follows grip is a very stubborn one in resisting treatment. It must be corrected however before any cure can be considered permanent. As long as the blood remains thin there will continue the relapses with which most sufferers from grip are familiar. Warmth and quiet alone give comfort and these not for long at a time. Sleep is restless and does not refresh the nerves which are always at high tension.

The best way to correct this after-effect of the grip is to build up the blood and there is no better blood builder than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

As soon as the revitalized blood courses through the system you are aware of its soothing influence. Gradually the color returns to the pale cheeks, appetite and digestion improve and you are on the road to health.

Your druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."

DRUGGIST EVANS HEARS FROM MRS. GEORGE HARTMAN

Who Derived "Wonderful Results" From the Nerv-Worth He Sold Her.

Below readers will find an entirely new endorsement of this world's greatest nerve tonic. It was given a few days ago to Druggist T. J. Evans by Mrs. George Hartman, of 503 Hull street, this city. It furnishes remarkable evidence of the power of Nerv-Worth to overcome nervous illness when all other medicines have failed.

"I am a mother of five children. Have had nervous and stomach trouble for the past three years. My trouble was mostly dizziness and fainting spells which at times would affect my heart. I took treatments with no success. Was prevailed upon to try Nerv-Worth and am thankful to say it has given me most wonderful results. I am feeling like a new woman and I can not praise Nerv-Worth too highly."

"I am purchasing the second bottle and expect to take a full course of treatment. My fainting spells have left me and I can sleep now at nights, whereas before my sleep was disturbed and I haven't had a fainting spell since I began with Nerv-Worth."

"MRS. GEORGE HARTMAN." This is the type of home proof which continues to render the Nerv-Worth sales truly phenomenal at the Evans drug store. If the reader is in need of a powerful friend like Nerv-Worth it will pay to talk to Mr. Evans about it. He knows what Nerv-Worth will do and guarantees results. 1-24-25

Patient (mournfully)—I'm afraid, doctor, from what you've said there's very little hope for me.

The Specialist—Nonsense! If you survive the experiments I'm going to make on you, you may live for months.—Judge.

Gums shrinking? Danger ahead!

Go now to a mirror and examine your mouth! Do your gums look "rinsed out," shrunken? Do you see a jagged appearance in the gum-line?

If so, see your dentist. He will tell you that you have pyorrhea, and that to save your teeth you will have to fight this dread disease at once.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentinel Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Granville

(Special to Advocate.)

Granville, Jan. 26.—Delta Omicron, the musical sorority of Sheppardson college, is becoming more and more an influence among the many musical organizations of this place. The members all are musicians who have complied with the strict conditions imposed, and all are enthusiastic in their several lines of musical activity. They held a meeting last evening in Keckel Hall which was a fair demonstration of the work they are doing. This was a program of organ composers, given by Miss Leila C. Brown, head of the organ department in Denison Conservatory, herself a concert artist of assured standing, whose brilliant technique, wonderful orchestration and exquisite feeling have frequently delighted Granville audiences. The composers represented last evening were Bach and Vedor, whose lives and works were described in brief sketches by Miss Imogene Hamblen, in a way to lend additional interest to the masterly interpretation of the several compositions by Miss Brown. Below is the program as rendered:

Bach Fugue—G-minor

Vedor Symphony—3 movements

Overture to "Der Frieschutz"

At the meetings of the presidents of Baptist colleges held on Thursday, Dr. Chamberlain, president of Denison university, presided. FATHER TAKES SON TO HOUSE; BOTH ARRESTED

Ignoring his son's protest and refusing to take his advice to go home, a well known Licking county farmer yesterday was arrested by Police Chief Sheridan in a house in South Fourth street, along with three other men and three women. One of the women was charged with operating a disorderly house, while the women were all charged with visiting the place. Additional charges of being drunk were placed against the entire party. Fines ranging from $5 and costs to $15 and costs were assessed.

When the defendants were arraigned in police court this morning, the officers were told that the son, who was taken into custody with his father, had been trying to get his father to go home but without result. The father had nearly $150 on his person and the son feared he would lose the entire roll. After being fined in police court the father and son were taken to the juvenile court where the father will be charged with contributing to his son's delinquency in taking him into the place.

If you should find yourself unusually quiet as the final notes of "Absent" die away, it will be no more than a tribute to the beauty of what we believe is unqualifiedly the most effective and artistic male quartette singing to be found in any catalog. The tone, the blending, the very breath pauses are eloquent in tenderness. The same unanimity of purpose and perfection of results is found in the singing of the Columbia Mixed Quartette in "Crossing the Bar", a companion piece to "Absent."

The Disappearance of the Frontier.

A young college professor who was suffering from ill health recently made an effort to find a farm proposition at a moderate price. He spent several months looking at many properties in the western states. He had little money and found nothing that he felt like buying on mortgage. The farms offered for moderate prices all had defects. Water rights were often unsatisfactory, or the moisture was too uncertain. Fruit orchards frequently suffered from some pest. Plenty of good farms were offered him, but at prices he called prohibitive for him.

The professor was so discouraged by these obstacles that he went into Canada, and spent several months in some of the new sections now being opened to settlement. It seemed to him that it would take a whole generation to get these new lands into profitable propositions, with comfortable living conditions.

He felt the Canadian governments were much to blame for holding out too flattering hopes for pioneers. He advised settlers to stay in the United States.

Touching.
A lady who hurried home from France at the outbreak of the war, was asked what, of all the things she had seen, had impressed her most. She replied: "Well, I think it was the common soldiers. When I heard all those pheasants singing the Mayonnaise it fairly brought the tears to my eyes."

Aunt Caline says: "One thing I remarked about a man an' that is he'll always stick up for the male sex."

Schiff's Warning.

(Philadelphia Record.)
"My heart is for the Republican party, but my common sense makes me a Democrat."

This occurs in an address of Jacob H. Schiff, banker, and tolerably well acquainted with the business conditions of the country, and the relations of politics to them, to the Republican Club in New York. Mr. Schiff stated that he had voted for a Democrat. Voting a Republican ticket has been a life-long habit with him, but his common sense makes him a Democrat.

We commend this to the Republicans who are proclaiming that the tariff will be the issue in the approaching national election, and who seem to think that they must win on that, though they have often lost the House of Representatives and three times the Presidency when that was the sole, or at least the principle issue.

Mr. Schiff's idea of the tariff as the issue on which the Republicans can have a walk-over is expressed in this paragraph:

"Standing here on holy Republican ground, I say without fear or favor, if you renew in the next Presidential campaign the tariff agitation of the past; if you threaten the country with a tariff, and a renewal of special privilege and high protection, the people will have none of it. The people have learned, the workmen and the farmers have learned, and they cannot be misled any further."

Mr. Schiff urged a world wide free trade as the best preventative of wars, and he impressed upon the minds of his Republican friends—or he tried to—that the country is prosperous, and business would be checked by another tariff campaign, and they would be wise to prevent this agitation.

Mr. Schiff predicted the last panic nearly a year in advance because the Republicans in Congress would not reconstruct the banking and currency system. They were urged to do so by business men all over the country, and under the leadership of such men as Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, the subject was smothered. Mr. Schiff told the country what the result would be and the event justified him. He now tells the Republicans to let the tariff alone, to protect business from another agitation, to let the prosperity of the United States take care of itself, and warns them of what will result if they disregard his advice.

Mr. Schiff has plenty of common sense. It makes a Democrat of him. It is only the force of habit that inclines him still toward the Republican party. There is yet time for the Republicans to take his advice and save themselves from defeat. But they will pay no more attention to him now on the tariff than they paid to him in 1906 on the currency.

Government as a Game.
(New York World.)
On the night of Dec. 31, 1862, Gideon Welles, who was secretary of the navy in President Lincoln's cabinet, wrote in his diary:

We have had some misfortunes, and a lurking malevolence exists toward us among nations that could not have been anticipated. Worse than this, the unenvied, relentless and unpatriotic spirit of party paralyzes and weakens the hand of the government and country.

Those words describe the state of the nation today as clearly as they described the state of the nation 53 years ago.

It is an extraordinary thing that the American people, practical, shrewd and far-sighted as they are in most of their affairs, still allow the business of government in great crises to be made the football of partisan politics, regardless of the consequences.

Mr. Bryan wants to control the Democratic party; Mr. Roosevelt wants to control the Republican party; the Republican party wants to regain possession of the government and the federal offices, and out of this welter of personal and party ambition come all the dangers that now threaten the American people. If the national defense measures fail it will be because all these elements have put themselves above the country.

Yet the final responsibility rests less with the politicians than with the people themselves. When a congressman or a party leader plays the demagogue, it is a sign that he believes the performance is popular and profitable. When he subordinates the welfare of the nation to factional or partisan advantage it is because he has reason to think that his constituents approve. His conduct is his measure of public intelligence.

Family Life.
Mother has a lighthouse, forever she's away

What Would You Have Done?
Once upon a time a woman invited her neighbor to see a collection of drawings she had been peopling. They were without doubt the worst atrocities that had ever been committed in the name of Art.

Each succeeding one seemed more monstrous than the last, and the visitor, hampered by the fact of being a truthful person, was making mad but hopeless efforts to find something to say that would not be insulting.

Finally, after inspecting the last one, she looked at her hostess with a soulful expression and said earnestly: "I never saw anything like them!"

Rippling Rhymes
Down and Out.
The bum comes trembling to your door, he's starved and cold and weak and sore. Through whiskers full of snow and ice, he humbly begs you for the price. No doubt he is a lazy skate, who never tries to pay the freight; no doubt he loafs on summer days, when every busy farmer pays a handsome wage to those who'll toil, and push the plowshare through the soil. No doubt he is a chronic shirk, who has more time for honest work. No doubt the kopek you bestow will to the grog dispenser go. Yet loosen up, nor ask the bo if rum has brought him down so low. And can the helpful moral spie! that you have wound upon your reel, all suffering to be unwound; for snow is deep upon the ground, and bitter is the winter air, and hunger means a bleak despair. Alhambra, Tonight and Tomorrow.
Miss Edith Storey the Vitaphone motion picture star, who is portraying Viola Allen's part of Glory Quayle in "The Christian," the famous story by Hall Caine, the pictured version of which will be presented at the Alhambra Theatre tonight and tomorrow has much to say relative to the values of acting in the drama and in the pictures. Miss Storey is well qualified to speak since she has been called "The Bernhardt of the Screen," and prior to her entrance into pictures she was an actress on the stage.

According to Miss Storey, playing such a part as Glory Quayle, in "The Christian," in pictures is infinitely harder than doing the same thing in the drama. Miss Storey's contention is that the photo-play actress is deprived of her power of speech, and anyone who stops for a moment to Miss Frances Densmore, of the U. S. Museum in Washington, probably knows more about Indian music than any one else in the country. She is compiling a book of the songs of the Red Man, and has made many phonographic records of tribal songs. Here she is shown transcribing the music from the phonograph to notes that may be played on the piano.

High School Play.

The Junior class of the Newark High school last night put upon the stage two dramatic pieces, to the delight of a big audience, in which there were many of the families and friends of the young men and women taking part in the productions.

The first was called "Curtain Raiser" of one act, entitled, "The Kleptomaniac," but it took a little over an hour to complete it. Making due allowances for the fact that the action in the piece, could hardly be kept up to the speed that would have been demanded of professionals, the story was unfolded by seven young women in a most creditable manner. A careless young society matron misses her purse, and by a process of elimination of the places it "could not possibly be," (including her inside coat pocket) she arrives at the inevitable conclusion that the woman who picked up her coat when she dropped it in the street car, had stolen the purse.

Several of her women friends called at her home and each in characteristic manner offered suggestions, including the notification of the police, the inadvertent telling of the story to a newspaper woman, and the attendant horror of the publicity threatened.

After a while one of the guests departs to "flag down" the possible publication of the story by engaging the reporter for that evening, and in her hurry slips into the young wife's coat by mistake. The purse is found in one of these pockets and all ends happily.

Every one of the actors portrayed the part assigned her in a most creditable manner, and the audience enjoyed the skit, probably as much if not more than the longer and more pretentious offering, "The Rosemary."

The cast for "The Kleptomaniac" was as follows:
Mrs. John Burton (Peggy).....
Josephine Hull
Mrs. Valerie Chase Armsby, a young widow..... Esther Hartshorn
Mrs. Charles Dover (Mabel), a bride..... Virginia Warner
Mrs. Preston Ashley (Bertha).....
Helen Peck
Miss Freda Dixon..... Maxine Davis
Miss Evelyn Evans, a journalist..... Josephine Hulshizer
Katie, Mrs. Burton's maid..... Myrtle Ross

In "The Rosemary" the more numerous cast attempted the production of a drama that had for its vital interest, the ardent, dignified love of

In Milady's Boudoir

By Gwen Sears

Many women grow old in appearance when they feel young and are active and alert in all things. There is no excuse for this condition and to avoid it, one day each week should be used in part, at least, to taking stock of oneself. A mirror and a tape measure should be a woman's adviser for they will truly present her true condition. When one finds that one is losing either youth, beauty or symmetry, it is high time to take steps that will restore these valued possessions.

One's mental attitude has much to do with one's appearance, but at the same time, restorative remedies must also be sought, and as different conditions demand different treatment, it would be wise to consult a specialist who is versed in treating your particular shortcomings.

NERVOUS WOMEN.

IT'S THE SAME EVERYWHERE IN OHIO.

Cambridge, Ohio.—"I was nervous, run down and in bad shape. I had female trouble and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to build me up and as a nerve. It helped my heart and nerves and did me good."
—Mrs. DAISY E. TURNER, 825 Turner Ave., Cambridge, O.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is and has been for over forty years just the medicine that every woman needs when passing through the changing days. It is not a secret prescription, for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper; it's a temperance medicine. Not only does it build up the entire system and make it strong and vigorous enough to withstand the organic disturbances, but it has a quieting effect upon the feminine organism that reduces the distress to a minimum. For any womanly ailment, disease or complaint, no matter of how long standing, we advise anxious women to get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, in either liquid or tablet form.

THIS BOOK EXPLAINS.

If you will send three dimes or stamps, to pay for wrapping and mailing, and enclose this notice, Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send you a revised copy of his Common Sense Medical Adviser, in cloth binding, 1008 pages, with color plates. Just what you need in case of sickness or accident. Treats of Physiology, Anatomy, Sex problems, Marriage relations, Hygiene, Exercise, Disease and its prevention.

SOCIAL FAVORITE TO LEAVE CAPITAL

ing. Prevention, however, is better than cure.

To be young and beautiful and be the happy possessor of a symmetrical form one must be healthy. Health demands plenty of sunlight, pure air, proper respiration, a clean body, exercise, restful sleep, good digestion, and the drinking of pure water and taking easily digested food.

Water must be regarded as a food, for it forms a necessary part of every tissue of our bodies, besides being a chief constituent of the blood. We take into the system large supplies of water in the shape of ordinary articles of food, but even this is not sufficient to meet the requirements of our bodies and to repair the constant waste. A full grown individual loses daily about eighty-four ounces of water, half of this quantity being given off through the skin and lungs.

Women with hair that curls naturally are inclined to wet it slightly with water when arranging the coiffure. This does more harm than good in winter, for it increases the stiffness of the hair and causes it to appear dry and lustreless.

The hair may be made tractable in cold weather by brushing and then applying a mixture that contains oil. This will neutralize the dryness, makes the hair pliable and has tonic properties as well. Always massage the scalp when using a tonic of this sort and the hair will show signs of improvement in a few weeks.

One of the best oils to use in cold weather is castor oil, and if faithfully applied it will increase the growth and beauty of the hair. An excellent tonic is made of castor oil, two ounces, pure cologne sixteen ounces. The mixture will not be greasy and it's agreeable odor is a solution that increases its value as a hair tonic.

Use the castor oil tonic every other day unless the hair is extremely dry, in which case once a day is not too often. It is natural to try to hasten results by frequent applications of the tonic, but this will only make the hair heavy with grease and altogether unmanageable.

Another splendid cold weather tonic is: Cologne four ounces, tincture of cantharides one-half ounce, oil of rosemary quarter ounce, and the same of oil of lavender. The most effective way to apply is to separate the hair in small strands and rub the tonic well into the scalp with the tips of the fingers or a small brush.

If you should notice the hair falling and that it is dry and stiff in texture I suggest that you use this tonic: Bay rum two ounces, coconut oil three ounces, tincture of nuxvomica four and a half ounces, and oil of bergamot forty drops. Apply every other night.

Every Day Etiquette

"Is it proper for a lady to stand when being introduced to people in a ball room and should I offer my hand?" enquired Marie.
"If she is seated she need not rise but if she wishes to show cordiality she may do so and also extend her hand. When being introduced to another woman it is well to rise slightly and extend the hand," replied her mother.

"When writing a friendly letter should one put the person's name to whom one is writing, at the top of the letter?" was Mary's query.
"It is not the best form to put the name at the top of a personal letter. After the date line you should begin the salutation," replied her aunt.

A Moving Appeal.

"Say, old chap, are you fond of moving pictures?"
"I should say so!"
"Then come round to our house next Tuesday, and give a hand! We're moving that day!"

Your Boys and Girls

Corporal punishment is a relic of barbarism, and, with our emancipation from certain semi-savage conditions, it will naturally pass into oblivion. But as long as parents persist in the fostering of barbarous propensities, bequeathing them to their children, and dwarfing the finer moral senses by a cultivation of savage tastes, we must be content to use, in some degree, barbarous methods of discipline.

The usual occasion for a whipping in the home or the school is a failure on the part of the child to obey some positive law or command. He fails to respect law and is forced into obedience. But how many parents endow their children with an inherent reverence for law, and teach them from earliest infancy, to esteem every law that has been enacted for the good of the individual and the home? Too often the tendency of the parent's teaching is to regard civil regulations only when it is convenient and desirable to do so.

When it is time to feed baby take the cold bottle from the ice and place it, still corked, in a vessel of warm water, having the water cover the bottle above the milk line, and then allow the water to heat. Do not allow it to boil as that will make the milk too hot.

To test the temperature of milk, open the bottle and drop a little milk on the inner surface of the arm. If it feels comfortably warm to the mother's skin it will be right for baby. If it has become too hot, cool the bottle under the running water. The mother should never put the nipple in her mouth to test the temperature of the milk, as an infection such as a cold, might easily be conveyed in this way to the baby.

The old method of dosing delicate little stomachs with nauseous drugs is wrong and harmful. Try the external treatment Vicks' Vapo-Oil. Salve. Just rub a little over the throat and chest. GAS GLOBE TURBAN FOR SPRING WEAR

A forerunner of the kind of millinery that will be seen within a few weeks is this spring hat which reminds one of an inverted jardiniere topped with a lace affair reminding one of nothing so much as a gas globe. The lower part of the turban is of straw, the crown is of lace and the upper part is also of lace. A moire ribbon and two flowers are used effectively as trimmings.

Chicago Grain

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, Jan. 26.—Buoyancy in wheat continued today after a new high record price for this season had been made, the fourth time in four successive days. Advances today resulted from Liverpool dispatches that consumption of supplies was exceeding the arrivals and that the demand for wheat from the United States would be unabated while such a condition remained. There were also advices that Kansas fields were covered with snow and ice and that colder weather threatened damage to the winter crop. After opening a shade off to 8 1/8¢ higher, the market sagged a trifle and then scored sharp general advance. First prices for May were 1.36½ to ¾ and for July

1.26½ to ¾.
Profit-taking by holders led afterward to a decided reaction in wheat prices. There seemed to be a pause in export inquiry. Quotations closed weak 3/4¢ up to 1/4¢ net decline, with May 1.36½ and July 1.26½.
Absence of selling pressure allowed corn to rise with wheat. Unfavorable weather was a bullish factor. Opening prices which varied from a sixteenth lower to a quarter up were followed by substantial gains all around.
Smallness of receipts here and in-cist damage in Argentina counted against the bears but the corn market became heavy when wheat declined. The close was weak at 1¢ net advance.
Oats had the same action as corn.
Trade was light.
Weakness in the hog market had a depressing effect on provisions. The receipt of hogs were much larger than expected.

AUTO STOPPED
WHEN GASOLINE WAS EXHAUSTED

Expert Auto and Tire Dealer in Predicament on Lonely Road
Late Last Night—Gas Out.

Clyde Bowman, automobile agent and tire dealer in South Second street was forced to undergo much good natured chaffing at the hands of friends today when they heard that he was "hung up" with one of his new eight-cylinder Oldsmobile cars last night in the Dugway west of town. Mr. Bowman had taken a prospective customer to Granville and on his way home was ruminating on the splendid manner in which his new machine was acting when it suddenly stopped and refused to budge. Mr. Bowman tested it out and could not find anything wrong, and after several efforts at starting the machine thought he had better examine the gas tank. He was very much chagrined to find only a drop of fluid and so he got back in the car and waited patiently for developments. After a long and tedious wait, the light of an approaching auto flashed into view and when it came up to the Bowman car the owner asked permission to ride back to Newark, which was granted, and securing another machine and a can of gasoline he drove back to the Dugway, replenished the gas supply and brought it into the city. He explained to his friends that he was remonstrating his car to proceed yesterday and thought he had plenty of gas when he started for the college town.

Bonds were steady.
Increased heaviness in rails and further sharp declines in specialties marked the final hour. The closing was weak.
Favorable auguries created by the United States Steel dividend and earnings were nullified by continued foreign liquidation and short selling.

GRIFFITH SHOWS WELL IN BOUT WITH WELSH

Akron, Jan. 26.—Johnny Griffiths of this city gave a good account of himself last night in his 12-round battle with Freddie Welsh, light-weight champion, and had there been a decision undoubtedly would have been awarded a shade, as he made it a battle all the way. Griffiths was the aggressor throughout the entire bout, excepting in the sixth and tenth rounds, when Welsh did the forcing.

Welsh was unable to do any execution with his left except in the twelfth, when he cut open Griffiths' face. The bout was at catch weights, Griffiths weighing around 142 and Welsh 138.

WRESTLING GAME IN NEWARK HAS BECOME POPULAR

It took a long time to revive it, but the wrestling is now well on the way to enjoy the popularity it had ten or more years ago. There are several reasons for the regeneration of the oldest of sports throughout the country, but Newark has its present grappling champion, Paul Bowser, to thank as much as anything else for it.

Bowser who meets Prokos in a finish bout Thursday night at the Music Hall, was the topic which invigorated the sport here and aroused the fans from their lethargy. Bowser showed the fans that he could deliver the goods and now he is hailed as a real champion.

Several months ago, wrestlers in New York and other sections of the country were unable to draw any crowds, but the recent revival of the game in New York at the Manhattan Opera House, has made the game boom. Joe Stecher, the raucous Nebraska farmer boy, has been one of the main factors in restoring the game in New York to its former popularity.

When Bowser first wrestled in Newark, the crowd at the ringside was very scant. Plenty of thrills was injected into the first bout and the fans were pleased. Then the crowd began to grow. So did the class. Almost every other night the floor of the Music Hall has been occupied by the foremost enthusiasts of clean and honest sport. Those honored and respected in all lines of business became steady patrons of the shows.

Wrestling news came to be as much of a feature of the sport page as anything else that prevails in the winter months. The knowledge of the existence of a good scrumpler representing Newark spread about, and Bowser became a popular over night.

But wrestling has made a fine up-hill fight. It has apparent survived the awful dews to which it was not several years back. It is now to be seen that no parasites try to live off it again, for it is based on the list of questionable sports once more it is through forever.

Bowser realizes this and seeks the hearty co-operation of every fan to aid him in getting only the very best men to meet him. He will probably announce his decision, as to whether he will take on Albrecht in a return bout, Thursday evening. A number of good preliminaries have been arranged and its a safe bet that the fans will witness one of the best in the best, but yet staged in the Music Hall.

The advance sale of tickets has exceeded all previous sales and with the large Greek contingent from the surrounding cities coming en masse a record breaking crowd is expected.

COON HUNTER BAGS WILDCAT NEAR ATHENS

Athens, Jan. 25.—The first wildcat killed in this section of the state in a great many years fell to the gun of W. M. DeWeese of Stewart Monday night. DeWeese thought his dog had treed a raccoon, but when his gun cracked a wildcat that weighed 25 pounds fell. The animal was brought into the village of Stewart, where it was seen by hundreds. It is supposed that the animal was traveling from the West Virginia mountains to the wooded regions of the Hocking River Valley. Until it was killed, no "wildcat" reports had been received here, but since its death farmers can explain heavy losses of poultry. So far as is known, it is the first wildcat killed in Athens county in several decades.

ASHBROOK VOTES FOR FEDERAL AID FOR GOOD ROADS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—The Ohio congressional delegation divided yesterday in the vote on the Shuckelard good roads bill, which seeks to extend government aid to the extent of $25,000,000 a year to the various states on condition that the states or local subdivisions match the government's contributions dollar for dollar.

The Ohio members voted as follows: For the bill—Ashbrook, Brumbaugh, Emerson, Hollingsworth, Kearns, McCulloch, Matthews, Mooney, Ricketts, Russell, Sherwood, Williams, Switzer, Overmyer. Against the bill—Allen Longworth, Gordon. Not voting—Gard, Fess, Key, Cooper and Cresser. The bill was passed 281 to 81.

Representative Longworth delivered a very aggressive speech against the bill. "The condition of the treasury is such that I do not think we can go ahead with reckless expenditure even for worthy purposes," he said. "The situation is such that if you are to pay out $25,000,000 a year, you must provide a new form of taxation to do it and any man who votes in favor of this bill must be willing to carry it out by voting for some new form of taxation, probably a stamp tax, which has been described as the most odious form of taxation."

NESSER TO MEET JACK GEYER IN COLUMBUS BOUT

Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—Local friends of Fred Nesser who have long been clamoring to see the big fellow in action opposed to a man who is on the same level with him in regard to size and ability, are well pleased to learn that on next Monday night before the Queensbury Athletic club, the lankiest of the Nesser boys will be given an opportunity of demonstrating what he can do when stacked up against one of the recognized good men of the heavyweight division.

Nesser is to undergo his baptism of fire opposed to Jack Geyer of Lima. Geyer is not coming to Columbus as an unknown brawler whose reputation exists on paper only. Followers of the squared circle are well acquainted with the ability of the rugged heavy term from the northern part of the state who will be opposed to Nesser in his first main bout before downtown fans.

Geyer has been boxing for a number of years and, while his reputation is not as flashy as that of the Corbett or a Fitzsimmons, he can be well proud of his career in the ring and through his sterling work against most of the prominent heavies of the day he has earned a reputation as a real ability wherever he appeared.

One of Geyer's notable victories is a four-round triumph over Frank Moran, the most prominent challenger of Jess Willard for the heavyweight championship of the world. Geyer received a referee's verdict over the blonde Pittsburgher in Frisco.

PLEASANT CHAPEL

Miss Margaret Flowers was the guest of her aunt Mrs. J. W. Neibarger Saturday.

Mrs. J. F. Warman was calling on the sick in the neighborhood several days last week.

Mr. John Hickman, the dairyman, is experiencing some very bad roads in his daily route to Newark.

Harold, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Montanya, is quite sick at this writing.

ZANESVILLE'S WATER SUPPLY CAUSES TYPHOID

Zanesville, Jan. 26.—The city of Zanesville murdered a bit people last year because the city didn't have a wholesome water supply and the sooner the city council devises ways and means of getting a better water supply the better. Action of their part means the saving of lives," said Dr. H. T. Sutton, president of the state board of health Tuesday night when told that there were 22 cases of typhoid fever here at the present time.

"People should not all water used in their homes," said Dr. Sutton.

How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.)
A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered de-latone and water, apply to hairy sur-face and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair has vanished. This simple treat-ment cannot cause injury, but care should be exercised to get real delat-one. (Adv.)

"I Was a Nervous Wreck, But Now Sleep Well, Eat Well and Feel Well."

Mrs. Plum, whose husband, J. W. Plum, is a brakeman on the B. & O. railroad, and whose residence is 24 West Locust street, is an enthusiastic believer in the greatness of the Master Medicine Tanlac and does not hesitate to go in print on the subject, for as she says, she is anxious for those who are afflicted as she was to find relief as she did. Mrs. Plum had suffered for years with stomach trouble and extreme nervousness and tried many preparations without any benefit until she tried the Master Medicine Tanlac. And Mrs. Plum, in her interesting statement on the subject, says:

"For years I've suffered from extreme nervousness, stomach trouble and catarrh. I tried numerous prescriptions and preparations without any benefit until I was induced to give Tanlac a trial. I'm now on my second bottle and I have improved wonderfully. I formerly was a nervous wreck, but now I sleep well, have a splendid appetite and am feeling better in every way than I have for years. I unhesitatingly recommend Tanlac to those troubled as I was."

Tanlac is a great tonic, a system purifier and nerve builder, and for stomach, liver and kidney troubles and the after effects of grip and pneumonia has no rival in the medical world. Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is being demonstrated at Hall's Drug Store by the Tanlac man, and is for sale at Utica by P. H. Richardson, at Hebron by the Hebron Drug Co., and at Granville by W. P. Ullman. (Adv.)

COSHOCTON COPS KEEP LOAFERS OFF THE CITY STREETS

Coshocton, January 26.—Under orders from Safety Director Ashman local police officers are issuing orders to chronic loafers to keep on the move. No congregating on streets is allowed. Particular attention is given by the officers to remarks by loafers regarding women pedestrians. As a result of this latest crusade Charles R. Gross was fined $10 and costs because he addressed a young girl on the street, inviting her to "take a walk with him." Other prosecutions are promised.

Township School Board

At a meeting of the Newark township board on Monday afternoon during an informal discussion of the Cherry Valley situation, the president, Fred C. Evans, read an opinion from Prosecuting Attorney Horner to the effect that a second addition could not be legally made to the present building, which opinion was placed on file.

A proposition was then made to the board to divide the Cherry Valley sub-district and erect a new building south of the Pan Handle railroad tract. The vote on this stood as follows: Yeas, Hartshorn and Taylor; nays, Evans, Hall, White—lost.

A second proposition was then made to erect a new four-room building in the Cherry Valley district, the vote on which stood: Yeas, White; nays, Evans, Hall, Hartshorn, Taylor—lost.

A third proposition was also submitted to construct a two-room building on the west side of Twenty-first street, the cost not to exceed $5000. The vote on that proposition stood: Yeas, Hartshorn, Taylor; nays, Evans, Hall and White—lost. The board then adjourned.

Washing Won't Rid Head Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

DEMANDS

SENT TO CHINA FROM JAPANESE GOVERNMENT—SEVEN IN NUMBER.

They Are Those Embodied in The Mikado's Program of Last Spring—America Interested.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Jan. 26.—The Japanese government has delivered to the Chinese minister in Tokio, for transmission of his government a note embodying seven demands which were included in the Japanese program of last spring, the Manchester Guardian learns from far eastern sources.

The Guardian expresses the hope that this news will be "authoritatively contradicted" as the demands when previously presented were full of danger to China's independence, and their general effort would have been to place China under the tutelage of Japan.

"It is the aim and hope of British policy," the newspaper continues, "to see China strong and independent, developing peacefully without interference from any foreign power. It is a duty we owe to ourselves and to China," says the Guardian, finally, "to help her in that direction, and we have enormous material interests too, which reinforce what is for us the only right and just policy."

On January 18, 1915, Japan presented to China a list of twenty-one demands arranged in five groups. The first group related to the Shantung province and to the conceding to Japan of rights and privileges previously enjoyed by Germany in Shantung as well as new prerogatives.

Group 2 related to South Manchuria and to concessions there for leasing of property, trading, railroad operations and construction, the appointment as Japanese as political, financial and military advisers and other concessions. This group also included demands for special rights to be granted to Japan regarding inner Mongolia.

Group 3, referred to the Hanyen-ping company.

Group 4, known as the "special group" demanded that China proclaim that hereafter she would not yield or lease any coastal territory to any power.

Group 5, known as the "general group" was the one which aroused most vigorous protests from the Chinese government. It contained seven articles, the first regarding the employment by China of Japanese as advisers; the second, the construction of Japanese hospitals, churches and schools in China; the third, the employment of Japanese to the police departments in the larger centers; fourth, China to purchase a certain proportion of war munitions from Japan; fifth, Japan's right to construct certain railroads in China; sixth, concessions to Japan in the province of Fuxien and seventh, right of Japanese subjects to propagate Buddhism in China.

The U. S. government addressed a note to Japan with regard to the demands made upon China querying in particular with respect to three points; the selection of foreign advisers by China, the purchase of war munitions and the question of foreign loans. The Japanese government replied to the note on March 22.

GAS SHORTAGE IN CLEVELAND WILL BE INVESTIGATED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—C. V. Critchfield, gas expert of the public utilities commission was ordered today to go to Cleveland Monday to investigate an alleged shortage of gas supply, formal complaint of which was made to the commission today by W. D. Fitzgerald, director of Law at Cleveland. Pressure was so low January 17, 18 and 19 that many families suffered from cold. Mr. Fitzgerald declared. He referred particularly to the East Ohio Gas company.

The public utilities commission today postponed from next Friday to February 21, hearing on the application of the New York Central railroad company's request for authority to issue $11,750,000 equipment trust certificates. This action was taken on request of S. H. West of Cleveland, general counsel for the company. Clarence H. Venner and James Pollitz, of New York, minority stockholders, yesterday asked the commission to summon a number of prominent capitalists who are directors of the company, to attend the hearing.

"REMEMBER OROZCO," SLOGAN OF VILLA; RECRUITING ARMY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) El Paso, Texas, Jan. 26.—Francisco Villa, now in Western Chihuahua, defying the forces of the Carranza government is using the cry "Remember Orozco," to stir up hatred against Americans and gain recruits for himself, according to foreigners who reached the border today.

General Orozco was Villa's most formidable foe until the latter drove him across the border into the United States, after the battle of Ojinaga nearly two years ago. Orozco was shot and killed last September in the mountains on this side of the boundary.

Several persons arriving from Chihuahua City, declared that thirty-six Americans were thrown into prison just before Villa evacuated that city, a number of Chinese were shot and the stores belonging to them and to the Japanese merchants were looted and burned.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alternative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case.

33 B St., Keyser, W. Va.
"Gentlemen—I was taken sick in November, 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations. The doctor said the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. I began your Alternative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever." (Abbreviated.)

PREVENTION

OF ACCIDENTS UNDERLYING SENTIMENT OF TODAY AS SET APART

By Proclamation of Governor Frank B. Willis—Safety Exposition in Cleveland.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, O., Jan. 26.—This was accident prevention day in Ohio, by reason of a special proclamation by Governor Frank B. Willis, setting it apart as an occasion when impetus should be given to plans to decrease the number of accidents which occur every year. So far as is known, Ohio is the first state to make special provision for the observance of this cause.

The day had particular significance in this city by reason of the fact that the Ohio safety exposition is being held here this week.

To make the day impressive for boys and girls the exposition management made preparations to care for all high school students.

The exposition is exhibiting the right and wrong ways of handling industrial machinery, with reference to dangers to the life and limb of workers.

Efforts are being made to induce President Woodrow Wilson to visit the exposition when he arrives here Saturday on his trip through the central west.
